Date: July 15, 2022

Subject: Claim Adjustment Reason Code (CARC) and Remittance Advice Remark Code (RARC) Updates

Summary: CARC and RARC codes have been updated to become compliant with Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) guidelines.

During a recent audit with CMS, it was identified that some CARC codes were mapped inappropriately with informational RARC codes. As a result, all of the CARC codes have been reviewed to ensure correct mapping with valid RARC codes.

The file entitled “CARC/RARC Code Updates effective August 15, 2022” reflects the original mapping of codes and the new mappings of codes, and is available on our website:

As referenced above, all codes have been updated to be in line with CMS guidelines and will become effective August 15, 2022.
